Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you very much for your letter of August 29th in answer to my letter of August 11th in connection with the Inter-American Bar Association.

I am not informed as to the work done by the International Commission of Jurists which would be helpful to the United States in Latin America. I have received pamphlets which, to a large extent, are heavy books showing communistic trials. Of course, these might be helpful if given to enough people in Latin America and read. However, I feel that the Inter-American Bar's program, which is anti-communistic and can be handled by Latins, would be helpful to the United States and much easier than having the Americans handle it themselves.

I know personally most of the gentlemen on the Board of the American Fund for Free Jurists. However, the work of that organization is so far different from ours that I do not believe they would be interested in our program nor do I feel that in view of this knowledge they would be willing to finance any activity of the Inter-American Bar Association.

I appreciate your interest in this matter and I am sorry that the Inter-American Bar Association can not carry out its program.
